22	SUMMARY OF THE	ACTION
23	1. From approximately January 2021 through October 2021, Defendant Tilila Walk
24	Sumchai orchestrated a massive Ponzi scheme and affinity fraud that targeted Tongan American
25	throughout the United States and raised approximately $11.8 million. Sumchai conducted
26	fraudulent securities offerings and sold unregistered shares to more than 1,000 retail investors in
27	her purported investment opportunity, which she called "Tongi Tupe."

Sumchai started her scheme by approaching respected leaders of the Tongan American community. Among other things, she falsely represented that she had a secret algorithm for Tongi Tupe that would generate extraordinary, guaranteed returns of around 1,433% in only a few months. She deceived some of these leaders into believing that Tongi Tupe was legitimate by paying them the promised high returns on their investments.

3. Sumchai then used the support of these unknowing leaders to convince ordinary 6 investors, mostly from the Tongan American community, to invest in Tongi Tupe. She organized 7 8 in-person meetings hosted by these leaders during which she promoted Tongi Tupe by making 9 similar false and misleading claims about, among other things, her supposed secret algorithm and the guaranteed returns. Many of the new investors believed Sumchai in part because their leaders 10 11 endorsed Tongi Tupe as a legitimate investment with high returns. Sumchai also recruited 12 investors by posting videos on social media that touted Tongi Tupe's high returns and showed her 13 flashing large sums of cash.

4. In reality, Tongi Tupe was a sham. Sumchai did not use an algorithm to generate any returns, and she did not place investor funds in any kind of investment or other financial instrument that would have generated returns. Instead, unbeknownst to investors, Sumchai used new investor money to pay the promised returns to existing investors, and she misappropriated at least $207,000 for her own benefit to pay for, amongst other things, travel, hotels, gambling at casinos, and shopping. By about October 2021, Sumchai and Tongi Tupe had run out of money and her Ponzi scheme had collapsed.

5. As a result of the conduct alleged in this Complaint, Defendant violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") and also violated the securities registration provisions of the Securities Act.

6. In this action, the Commission seeks permanent injunctions, disgorgement of illgotten gains with prejudgment interest, and a civil monetary penalty. The Commission also seeks an order (1) prohibiting Defendant from participating in the issuance, purchase, offer, or sale of any securities, except in her own personal accounts; and (2) imposing an officer and director bar.

1	JURISDICTION AND VENUE
2	7. The Commission brings this action pursuant to Sections 20(b), 20(d), 20(e), and
3	22(a) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. §§ 77t(b), 77t(d), 77t(e), and 77v(a)] and Sections 21(d),
4	21(e), and 27 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §§ 78u(d), 78u(e), and 78aa].
5	8. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to Sections 20(b), 20(d), 20(e)
6	and 22(a) of the Securities Act [15 U.S.C. §§ 77t(b), 77t(d), 77t(e), and 77v(a)], as well as Section
7	20(a), 21(d), 21(e), and 27 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. §§ 78t(a), 78u(d), 78u(e), and 78aa].
8	9. Defendant, directly or indirectly, made use of the means and instrumentalities of
9	interstate commerce or of the mails in connection with the acts, transactions, practices, and course
10	of business alleged in this Complaint.
11	10. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to Section 22(a) of the Securities Act [15
12	U.S.C. § 77v(a)] and Section 27(a) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78aa(a)], because acts,
13	transactions, practices, and courses of business that form the basis for the violations alleged in this
14	Complaint occurred in this District. For example, Defendant established the headquarters of her
15	affiliated entity Tongi Tupe, LLC in Stockton, California, and offered and sold shares in Tongi
16	Tupe from Stockton, California, directing investors to travel to Stockton to purchase shares of
17	Tongi Tupe and to collect the purported returns on their investments.
18	11. Intradistrict assignment to the Sacramento Division is proper pursuant to Rule
19	120(d) of the Court's Local Rules because a substantial part of the events or omissions which give
20	rise to these claims occurred in San Joaquin County.
21	DEFENDANT
22	12. Tilila Walker Sumchai , age 61, is a resident of Richmond, California, and a
23	Tongan national. She created the Tongi Tupe Ponzi scheme by offering unregistered securities to 24	investors. She is the sole owner, founder, and CEO of the entity Tongi Tupe, LLC, which was
25	established after she began her Ponzi scheme. She is also the CEO of PATOA, a corporation with 26	bank accounts that received and transmitted some funds from Tongi Tupe investors.

OTHER RELEVANT ENTITIES

13. Tongi Tupe, LLC is a California limited liability company, with its principal place of business in Stockton, California. Defendant is the sole owner, founder, and CEO of Tongi Tupe, LLC. It first registered with the California Secretary of State as a for-profit limited liability corporation on April 21, 2021, after Defendant had already raised over $2 million in connection with her offer and sale of unregistered Tongi Tupe shares. In its July 20, 2021, Statement of Information filed with the California Secretary of State, Tongi Tupe, LLC's type of business is described as an "Investment Club." It appears to be defunct with no assets.

9 14. PATOA is a for-profit California corporation incorporated on December 18, 2020,
10 with its principal place of business in Stockton, California, at the same address as Tongi Tupe, 11 LLC. Defendant is the CEO of PATOA. PATOA appears to have been registered to sound
12 phonetically identical to PTOA, a legitimate Tonga-based pro-democracy and anti-poverty
13 organization, in an effort to increase Sumchai's legitimacy and standing in the Tongan American 14 community. Some of the money raised from Tongi Tupe investors was funneled through 15 PATOA's bank accounts. PATOA appears to be defunct with no assets.

Defendant Bolsters Her Connections to the Tongan American Community

18 15. Beginning in at least 2020, Sumchai made efforts to bolster both her connections19 to, and her standing in, the Tongan American community.

Sumchai claimed that she personally was active in PTOA, which has members in both Tonga and the United States, and had raised money to help the poor in Tonga. In an apparent effort to misleadingly enhance her connection to PTOA and her standing in the Tongan American community, Sumchai instructed a friend in December 2020 to incorporate a for-profit entity called PATOA, which has a name that is phonetically identical to PTOA. In February 2021, PATOA filed a Statement of Information with the California Secretary of State listing Defendant as its CEO and describing its business as "Humanitarian org serving Tonga residents."

Defendant's Scheme to Defraud Investors

17. Beginning in or about January 2021, Sumchai approached a number of wellrespected Tongan American leaders throughout the United States and informed them that she had an investment called Tongi Tupe that would provide investors with guaranteed high returns. She also told some of the leaders that investing in Tongi Tupe would allow Tongan Americans to grow their wealth and assist the poor in Tonga.

18. Her material misrepresentations to these leaders included the claim that she would use a secret algorithm she created with her husband to grow the Tongi Tupe investments. She falsely described her husband as someone who had a Ph.D., was Native American, and knew the secret formulas utilized by Native American-owned casinos to consistently make money. She often did not specify what she would invest in, but did tell some investors that she would invest in stocks. Sumchai provided the leaders a written payout schedule that promised that an investor who made a $3,000 investment would receive $43,000 in return on investment. She also claimed that gains would be paid weekly starting four weeks after the initial investment followed by almost weekly payments, and that the investment would be safe and secure.

19. Many of the leaders invested in Tongi Tupe based on Sumchai's materially false and misleading representations. Sumchai was then able to convince certain leaders of the legitimacy of Tongi Tupe because she did initially make the payments shown on the written payout schedule to many of the leaders. By doing so, she deceived some of the leaders into believing that an investment in Tongi Tupe would lead to guaranteed high returns.

20. The next phase of Sumchai's fraudulent scheme involved leveraging the support of these unknowing leaders to help her recruit new investors. She appointed these leaders, who lived throughout the United States, as "chapter presidents." The chapter presidents then hosted inperson meetings during which Sumchai touted Tongi Tupe to investors, most of whom were Tongan Americans. At the meetings, Sumchai repeated many of the same lies about her supposed secret algorithm and her husband's involvement. She also showed potential investors written payout schedules that promised weekly payouts with high returns. Some of the potential investors asked their respective chapter presidents about Tongi Tupe, and, when the chapter presidents 28 endorsed the investment opportunity, many of these investors were persuaded that Tongi Tupe was legitimate and purchased shares.

21. Besides soliciting investors through in-person chapter meetings, Sumchai also posted videos on social media in which she showed off her alleged investing success by flashing large sums of cash and boasting about Tongi Tupe's high returns. She repeated in the videos many of the same falsehoods that she made at the in-person meetings, including the high returns, that the algorithm to generate high returns was created with her Ph.D. spouse, and that Tongi Tupe shares were legitimate investments.

9 22. From January 2021 through October 2021, Sumchai raised approximately $11.8 10 million from more than 1,000 investors by her offer and sale of shares in Tongi Tupe, which were 11 unregistered securities. Sumchai pooled investor funds and led investors to believe that they would 12 earn a profit based on her expertise, including her secret algorithm. She further led them to believe 13 that they would receive a pro rata share of the returns, with the pro rata amount determined by the 14 number of shares purchased. No registration statement has ever been filed or in effect with respect 15 to these securities and no exceptions to registration applied.

16 23. Moreover, Sumchai knew or was reckless in not knowing that she did not use a 17 secret algorithm to grow investor funds, and that her husband did not help her to develop such an 18 algorithm. In fact, she did not use investor funds to invest in any type of income-generating 19 security, asset, or instrument. She knew or was reckless in not knowing that she could not pay 20 investors the high returns that she had promised at meetings and in her videos. Sumchai knew or 21 was reckless in not knowing she would instead engage in a Ponzi scheme where she pooled new 22 investor funds in order to pay existing investors their promised returns.

23 24. Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions concerning how she would use
24 investors' money were critically important to investors in deciding to purchase the shares in Tongi
25 Tupe, and investors were denied the opportunity to make a fully informed investment decision.

26

Defendant's Efforts to Keep Her Ponzi Scheme Afloat

27 25. By approximately March 2021, Sumchai was having difficulty making the 28 promised high-return payments to investors.

С.

Case 2:23-cv-02027-AC Document 1 Filed 09/19/23 Page 7 of 12

26. To keep the façade afloat, Defendant had to try to bring in new money from yet more investors. To solicit these new investors, Sumchai began a promotion for Tongi Tupe, where she promised even higher returns: for a $3,000 investment, an investor would receive $146,000 after 16 weeks or an incredible return on investment of approximately 4,867%, over a 16-week period.

6 27. These extravagantly false promises had their desired effect, and investments in 7 Tongi Tupe spiked. In April 2021 alone, Sumchai raised more than $5.35 million, more than 45%
8 of the total she raised. In the three months following her 4,867%-return promotion, Sumchai
9 raised about $9.74 million, which was almost 83% of the approximately $11.8 million total 10 invested in Tongi Tupe.

28. 11 At Sumchai's direction, the vast majority of investors in Tongi Tupe paid for their 12 shares with cash either at the in-person meetings with the chapter presidents, or at Tongi Tupe, 13 LLC's headquarters in Stockton, California. Most investors were given handwritten receipts from generic printed receipt books that only listed the investor's name, the dollar amount paid, the 14 15 number of Tongi Tupe shares purchased, and a stamped "American Tonga Global Diaspora PTOA" logo as the entity issuing the receipt, even though Defendant's for-profit incorporated 16 entity was actually named PATOA. Sumchai kept cash receipt books and spreadsheets 17 18 documenting the flow of investor funds at Tongi Tupe, LLC's headquarters.

19

Defendant's Scheme Collapses

20 29. Starting in at least approximately mid-2021, some of the chapter presidents and 21 other investors traveled to Tongi Tupe, LLC's headquarters to demand their money back because 22 they had not received their promised returns. Sumchai responded that they would get their money 23 soon, and that they should return in another week or two. However, many of these investors were 24 never repaid.

30. In or around June 2021, some members of the Tongan American community who invested in Tongi Tupe began posting on social media that Sumchai was a fraud. Sumchai responded by attacking those critics in her own social media posts in an effort to intimidate and undermine them. For example, in one video, she accused a critic of lying about being a Tongi

Case 2:23-cv-02027-AC Document 1 Filed 09/19/23 Page 8 of 12

Tupe investor because the investment receipt he had posted on social media only showed a "PTOA" logo, even though Sumchai knew or was reckless in not knowing that cash payment receipts given to Tongi Tupe investors were in fact stamped with "PTOA."

31. Despite her efforts to discredit her own investors and promote Tongi Tupe, Sumchai saw new investments drop off dramatically from July 2021 through October 2021.
Sumchai raised only approximately $650 in October 2021, by which time she had largely stopped raising new funds or sending money back to existing investors.

8 32. As of April 2022, both Defendant and PATOA had virtually no cash in their bank
9 accounts, and the accounts had been closed by the respective banks. Tongi Tupe, LLC used 10 PATOA's accounts.

Misappropriation of Investor Funds

12 33. Defendant never disclosed to investors that she would use investor funds for her 13 own expenses and entertainment. For the time period between January 2021 and December 2021, 14 she misappropriated at least $207,000 in investor funds by gambling at least $77,000 at casinos, 15 spending over $64,000 on retail shopping, and paying over $66,000 for travel expenses such as 16 hotels, car rentals, and airfare. Defendant knew or was reckless in not knowing that using investor 17 money to pay for her expenses and entertainment was inconsistent with her representations to 18 investors about what she would do with their money.

34. Investors in Defendant's scheme did not know that their money was being misappropriated by Defendant for her own use. These investors were entitled to know this information and would have wanted to know this information prior to making their investments.
Without this information, investors were denied the opportunity to make a fully informed investment decision.
